2015 Western North Carolina
College Access Summit

April 27th, 2015

As fall is quickly approaching we hope that the school year has started with great success. One of the many opportunities that NCACHE offers is the Western North Carolina College Access Summit, that will take place here at Appalachian State University, Boone, North Carolina on April 27th, 2015.

This is a wonderful opportunity for you to increase your knowledge, networking and strengthen our local communities through college access and achievement. The conference will consist of sessions on CFNC, Financial Aid, Student Panels, Admission Counselors, and many more sessions whose focus will be on college access. We hope to see you there at this wonderful chance to increase your knowledge, and to help your students in reaching their full potential.

Watch this phenomenal teacher describe how both students and teachers can learn from their mistakes.
