October 2015 NCACHE News

The North Carolina College Application Week will be 2 - 6 November this year. This is a great opportunity to encourage seniors to complete their college applications.

Through CFNC.org, the goal of NC College Application Week is to provide every graduating senior the opportunity to apply to college online.

Special focus is placed on students who may have not seriously considered attending college and students who would be the first in their families to attend college. During this statewide college access event, all North Carolina
